Kimberly Coffman

Kimberly Coffman leads Herman Miller's award-winning Supplier Diversity initiative, which is designed to include the best U.S. suppliers to enhance the supply chain and support corporate and customer diversity goals. She has received recognition for her supplier diversity efforts including being named one of the 100 Women Impacting Supplier Diversity by Women's Enterprise magazine; one of the Champions of Diversity by DiversityPlus magazine; and the 2009 Outstanding Advocate for Minority-Owned Business by Holland Chamber of Commerce's Business Connections Committee.

Coffman holds a Master of Management degree from Aquinas College and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Telecommunication from Michigan State University. She is an active member of the Council of Supplier Diversity Professionals, a corporate member of the Women's Business Enterprise Council – Great Lakes and the National Minority Supplier Development Council. Coffman serves on the Board of Directors of the Michigan Minority Supplier Development Council and is a member of the Grand Rapids/Kent County Convention & Visitors Bureau's Multicultural Advisory Council.
